

Community	Vision	Mission
CUC	As Canadian Unitarian Universalists, we envision a world in which our interdependence calls us to love and justice.	The Canadian Unitarian Council (CUC) is an organization of Unitarian and Unitarian Universalist member congregations acting to enhance, nurture, and promote the Unitarian and Unitarian Universalist religion in Canada. The CUC is a beacon for Unitarian Universalist communities across Canada, providing them with leadership, support, and connection as they strive to foster a just and sustainable world and to enrich the spiritual lives of their members.
Comox Valley (BC)		We work to transform ourselves and our world through compassionate action. We intend to fulfill this mission, being guided by our Seven Unitarian Principles.
Nanaimo	We envision ourselves as a growing, forward-thinking spiritual community where life-long learning, reason and commitment to justice empowers us to help make our Fellowship, Nanaimo and the world better for all.	Our Mission at First Unitarian Fellowship of Nanaimo is to create spiritual connection and bring compassion, discovery and social justice to life.
Salt Spring Island		We open our doors as a Welcoming Community. We celebrate the inherent dignity and worth of every person. We foster social justice and environmental stewardship. We support each person's spiritual journey.
Victoria First
Capital (Victoria)		Our mission is to build an inclusive, evolving, liberal religious community which offers a safe, supportive, stimulating environment to those who feel the need for spiritual growth. We will model this community by committing ourselves: • to being honest, open and collaborative; • to listening, appreciating each other's gifts, building on each other's contributions and diversities; • to supporting each other and the wider community in finding the courage to act when injustice is perceived; • to operating from a model of shared leadership and personal responsibility; • to functioning through the democratic process tempered by compassion, consensus-orientation and recognition of minority views and • to celebrating and enjoying a vital shared life in community.
Vancouver	Because we envision a more compassionate world, we seek to deepen our spiritual and religious lives, grow and enrich our congregation, and advocate for love and justice.
